

Examination Support

Facilitating students who are unable to write or read an exam script

Note Taking Solutions – Examination Service - Info Sheet

NoteTaking Solutions offer a variety of services to facilitate students who are unable to write or read an exam script by our examination team. Our team provides a professional, discrete and understanding service at all times.

Reader – This service facilitates students who require assistance to read the examination paper.

Invigilator – This supervisory service facilitates a student requiring extra time to complete their exam script.

Reader/Invigilator – For students who require assistance to read an examination paper the Supervisor acts as both reader and invigilator.

Exam Transcription

1. An Electronic Notetaker transcribes the examination answers, dictated by the student onto a laptop and reads the resulting transcript back to the student.
2. An alternative service allows the student to view their examination transcript in real time by utilising two networked laptops.
